I Corinthians 3:5-9 (GWT) – ⁵ Who is Apollos? Who is Paul? They are servants who helped you come to faith. Each did what the Lord gave or called him to do. ⁶ I planted, and Apollos watered, but God made it grow. ⁷ So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, because only God makes it grow. ⁸ The one who plants and the one who waters have the same goal, and each will receive a reward for his own work. ⁹ We are God's coworkers. You are God's field.

We Labor together with God. Without God, I cannot. Without me, God will not. God rewards my obedience to my call. Finding our call, begins with hearing His voice.

Jeremiah 33:3 (NIV) – ³ Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.

God wants you to live over your head. If you can do it without God, it's not from Him.

Ephesians 4:7-8 (NIV) – ⁷ But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. ⁸ This is why it says: "When he ascended on high, he led captives in his train and gave gifts to men."

We are stewarding His grace and His grace is sufficient.

Romans 11:29 (NIV) – 29 for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable and not to be turned away from.

There are two levels of your calling. Your individual call is discovered by obeying your shared call. YOUR SHARED CALL connects you to the body of Christ.

Respond to his call. Get in a small group, start serving, be a tither and a giver, and participate in ministry training.
