

Legacy 2017 3

December 17, 2017 | mediaatvictory.com

There are four things legacy living enables:

1. Living daily with eternity in focus.

1 Timothy 4:8 – <sup>8</sup> For bodily exercise profits for a little while: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

Legacy living isn't about what we have consumed, but rather about what will remain. When you live with an eternal perspective, you want to make an eternal difference.

2. Loving God passionately.

II Corinthians 5:9-10 (NIV) – <sup>9</sup> So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. <sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

3. Serving others selflessly.

Proverbs 9:6 (MSG) – <sup>6</sup> Leave your impoverished confusion and live! Walk up the street to a life with meaning.

Psalms 90:12 (NKJV) – <sup>12</sup> So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Wisdom is found in the decisions you make and the life you pursue.

4. Living life intentionally and fearlessly.

The key to fearless living is not waiting for permission from people or circumstances to take action. When your passion is God's passion, you have now entered into a partnership with the God of the universe.

Hebrews 12:1-3 (NIV) – <sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. <sup>2</sup> Let us fix our eyes on

Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.<sup>3</sup>
Consider Jesus who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

Proverbs 11:30 (NKJV) –<sup>30</sup> The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.
