

The Other Baptism

There is "another baptism" that every believer should receive.

Mark 1:6-8 – <sup>6</sup> Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup> And he preached, saying, "There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. <sup>8</sup> I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

When the Holy Spirit comes, He will take the majestic truth of God and will dispense it just the way you need it, giving it to you with handles that you can take and use. It is the Spirit's delight to take the full truth of God and make one thing meaningful to that woman, something altogether different to that man, and something different again to that fellow down there. That's the work of the Holy Spirit and He never makes a mistake. He gives you just what you need.

John 16:14-15 - <sup>14</sup> The Holy Spirit will glorify Me [Jesus], for He will take of what is Mine and declare and show it to you. <sup>15</sup> All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore, I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Acts 1:4-5 – <sup>4</sup> And being assembled together with them, Jesus commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have heard from Me; <sup>5</sup> for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

Acts 2:1-4 – <sup>1</sup> When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. <sup>4</sup> And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Every believer should receive.

John 7:37-39 – <sup>37</sup> On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. <sup>38</sup> He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." <sup>39</sup> But this He spoke concerning the Holy Spirit, whom those believing in Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Believe in Jesus first and receive the holy spirit second.
