

The Story 4

June 02, 2013 | mediaatvictory.com

This weekend we say goodbye to this sanctuary.

Since April of 2006, in this room I have seen:

- Thousands of people give their lives to Christ
- God heal the sick
- Marriages and families put back together
- God extract the precious from what men have deemed worthless
- Tears of joy and sorrow
- Conducted my father's funeral

Joshua 4:6-7 – ⁶ This is to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, 'What do these stones mean?' ⁷ tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel forever."

We have spent three weeks laying memorial stones to mark the work of God for our lives and the next generation.

Tell your children the stories when they go into their classrooms and the youth center.

Psalm 26:7 -That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all Your wondrous works.

"There is no improving the future without disturbing the present." - Catherine Booth

Romans 14:7 - For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself.

John 4:34-35 – ³⁴ "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. ³⁵ Do you not say, 'Four months more and then the harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest now.

Joshua 4:9-10 – ⁹ Joshua set up the twelve stones that had been in the middle of the Jordan at the spot where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day. ¹⁰ Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan (a place of supernatural provision) until everything the LORD had commanded Joshua was done by the people, just as Moses had directed Joshua
